About Dr. Laszlo Kuharik

Dr. Laszlo Kuharik was born in Hungary on Jan. 3, 1913. He graduated from the University of Budapest with a degree in Doctor of Medicine and practised as a surgeon in Hungary until 1944. He met and married his wife, Maria, in a United Nations Refugee camp in Italy in 1944. They emigrated to Canada in 1951 and within the year he was admitted to the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada as a physician. They moved to Welland in 1952 where Dr. Kuharik practised medicine with Mrs. Kuharik's assistance until his retirement in 1987. His contemporaries noted that he was renowned and respected in the community and the profession for the excellence and compassion of his care. As a couple, they were inseparable until Dr. Kuharik's death in 1995. Maria Kuharik passed away in 2009.
